Heroin user's final message to mother

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A PHONE message to wish his mother happy birthday was the last time a drug user contacted his family before he was found dead on a road.

Warren McCormack, 27, was discovered by the Brooks Service Road behind McKay's store in Haverhill on April 2, the same day he had been released from Norwich Prison, an inquest heard.

Dr Peter Dean, the Greater Suffolk coroner, recorded a verdict of accidental death on Mr McCormack of Church Street, Hundon, at an inquest in Bury St Edmunds on Wednesday. Pathologist Professor Sebastian Lucas gave the cause of death as a heart attack, caused by opiate toxicity, namely heroin.

Dr Dean said: "There is absolutely no suggestion from any of the evidence or history given that Warren in any way intended to harm himself that night."

"He appeared to be in good spirits, with people he knew, having just been released from prison."

"There is a possibility that his tolerance may have been reduced while he was in prison, but it appears what happened was a tragic accident that emphasises the dangers of drug use."

Dr Dean said a background statement provided by Mr McCormack's family inferred that aspects of his behaviour had suggested he was a troubled individual and he had started using drugs. His family had continued to support him and help him to try to kick the habit, but he never succeeded.

Family health day bears fruit

GOODIE bags full of fruit were handed out to the first 200 families attending a special health test day in Haverhill on Saturday. The event was organised by the town's Association of Voluntary Organisations and Abbeycroft Leisure at Haverhill Leisure Centre. Children and adults were offered free blood pressure monitoring, diabetes and blood-sugar testing, body mass index measurements and tests of how efficiently the body uses oxygen. Stalls also offered advice on alternative therapies such as reflexology and head massage, and information on substance abuse, oral hygiene and meningitis. The event was sponsored by Sainsbury's, Aldi and the Co-op and supported by local councils and hospitals. MP Richard Spring, who opened it, said: "This is an excellent initiative which is becoming an annual fixture in Haverhill's calendar. I commend all involved for making it possible and taking steps to highlight health issues from which we can all benefit."

Frighteningly good fun unmasked

HAVERHILL youngsters got stuck in to half-term by getting messy with papier mâché to make some spooky masks for a Halloween event.

Haverhill Arts Centre hosted a series of creative workshops so youngsters could make their own contribution to the macabre monsters and freaky fiends due to lurk around East Town Park at tomorrow's town council's annual Halloween Trail.

Children aged between seven and 11 years old made scary masks and created some petrifying projections at sessions from Monday to Thursday, while older individuals made mini movies using sinister shadows, spooky silhouettes and strange sounds.

The event tomorrow takes place between 7 and 8pm and is free, but all children must be accompanied.

Post offices given help on staying safe

SUFFOLK police will visit every post office in and around Haverhill in a bid to cut down on the number of robberies they suffer this winter.

Operation Arctic is being launched to give out crime prevention advice, and special packs will be hand delivered to around 370 premises, including small shops.

Inspector Ben Cook said the packs put together by police community safety and crime reduction teams, as well as Post Office security, contained key messages and simple advice to help

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk stores stay safe. People living near post officers or stores are asked to stay vigilant and report any suspicious activity.

Inspector Cook said: "As the clocks go back and the evenings get darker, criminals can take the opportunity to prey on stores. We want to give the post office and shop managers information they can use to deter these people and keep themselves, their customers and their businesses safe."

High visibility patrols will be used in vulnerable areas as a deterrent and Post Office security will circulate information about suspicious incidents.

Police point out that those considering targeting a post office or store often visit the premises in the hours, days or weeks leading up to a robbery, driving by or sitting outside.

Inspector Cook said: "Whilst Suffolk is a safe place and the level of serious crime committed at post officers and stores in the county is low, we do need the public to act as an additional pair of eyes and ears – the information that the community gives could prevent a robbery from occurring at their local store."

Track down your family

ANYONE who has been watching the BBC's Who Do You Think You Are? programme and would like to discover more about their own family history should visit Clare Middle School on Saturday, November 3. A Family History Open Day is being organised between 10am and 4pm by Haverhill and Sudbury Family History Groups. Help and advice will be available covering any part of the country, whether you are just starting or are stuck with a problem. There will be access to the group's combined resources and guided searches on the internet, using the school's computer suite. Light refreshments are also available and admission is just £1. For more information, call (01440) 704157 or (01787) 370598

Lottery scam warning

A MAN who received a letter telling him he had won more than 8,000 Euros is warning others not to be taken in by the Spanish Lottery scam. Gerald Warton, of Belmont Court, Haverhill, was suspicious when the letter arrived because he had not bought any Spanish Lottery tickets. He rang the number on the letter and was asked for bank details so that his "win" could be paid in.

Mr Warton said: "I looked on the internet at the Spanish Lottery and they warn that these are scams and they are after your bank details. You do wonder for a moment if it is genuine, but some people might be gullible and not realise. I took the letter to the police, who said it was a scam and they had seen others like it."

Free crafts at library

SPOOKY crafts will be on offer on Sunday from 10.30am until 1pm at Haverhill Library in Camps Road. The craft activities are free and children are welcome as long as they are supervised by an adult. There will also be the chance to buy some early Christmas presents, with a selection of Usbourne books to buy at pocket money prices.

Technicolour tribute to teacher

PUPILS at two upper schools paid to swap school uniform for brightly coloured outfits in memory of a former head teacher.

Mick Ryan, who was head teacher at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College in Haverhill for many years, died in the summer after suffering from a long-standing kidney disease.

He was also involved with teaching at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College in the town.

To pay respect, both colleges held non-uniform days, with students asked to wear bright colours, as this was the theme at Mr Ryan's funeral. All money raised on the day will be donated to Kidney Research UK.

■ LIGHT BRIGHT MEMORIES . . . students at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College, pictured, wore bright coloured clothing for charity day in memory of former teacher Mick Ryan. Danish teachers visiting the school also took part, as did students and teachers from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College.

Halloween alternative

WITCHES and vampire costumes are banned from an alternative Haverhill Halloween event.

The Light Party, a Christian alternative to Hallowe'en, has been organised by group Churches4U, in the Salvation Army Hall at Chantry Road on Wednesday, October 31, from 5.30pm – 7.15pm

The annual event has proved to be a great success, held at various local venues for the past five years.

Tricia Effendi, one of its organisers, said: "Nowadays the elderly have genuine reasons not to answer their doors, especially on dark evenings. Trick or treating callers can be a real worry for them. Light Parties are an excellent way of bringing the community together. Carers can stay and join in the fun. From three to 93, everyone is welcome."

Tickets are £1, with food and drinks. Children can come in fancy dress so long as they observe the Hallowe'en costume ban.

Middle and upper school-age children can attend their own event, "Light in the Night" which will be held in the Methodist Church Hall on Camps Road, between 7.30pm and 10pm.

Gladiator jousting, big screen, dance mats and a DJ will ensure everyone has a night to remember.

Heroin user's final message

He became involved in criminal activity and went to prison, but was still in contact with his family and sent the message to his mother shortly before his death.

Dr Dean said on the day he had been released from prison Mr McCormack had travelled to Haverhill, arriving around 6pm, and met friends. The group had been drinking and chatting, until his friends became concerned when he at first appeared to be asleep, then slumped forward and stopped breathing.

One gave him chest compressions and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, while emergency services were called. A syringe was found close to him and he was pronounced dead at the scene.

Crimewave fears after citizens' group folds

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FEARS of a future crimewave have been voiced by an ex-officer after he accused police of "pulling the plug" on Haverhill's Crime Prevention Panel.

Eric Bratt, the scrapped group's chairman, made the stark prediction after resigning from his post.

Mr Bratt helped form the panel in 1990 but told the Weekly News he felt police had "pulled the plug" without warning.

Now he fears that the loss of crime prevention advice and lack of police presence in the town could lead to an increase in crime.

Mr Bratt, a retired police officer of many years service said: "We had a force crime prevention officer who worked with the group and communicated with police headquarters and I found out he was being taken away only two days before he left.

"I was told that because of the Safer Neighbourhood Teams there was no further need for a Crime Prevention Panel, but I could carry on on my own if I wanted to. I just washed my hands of it, I was so disgusted with them.

"When it started we had over 25 people on the panel and it had dwindled, but I was hoping to work with other nationalities in the town.

"We were completely independent, we were not part of the police, and we were able to give advice and information to people.

"I used to give talks about bogus callers and personal safety. I am sure that crime will increase now that they have trashed the Crime Prevention Panel."

A spokesman for Suffolk Police said: "Crime Prevention Panels across the area are currently under review.

"In most cases the panels have been offered a place on the local Safer Neighbourhood Team, this has happened in Haverhill.

"There were too few members for the panel to remain viable as it was, and options to keep it open were explored with the remaining members.

"We would encourage anyone who wants to be a community volunteer to contact their local Safer Neighbourhood Team, as the community is a vital partner in these teams.

"The input of the public helps to shape the work of the teams and helps solve problems."

'Fair' rating given to trust services

A HEALTH trust's use of resources has been rated "weak" and the quality of its services "fair" in a new report.

However, Suffolk Primary Care Trust welcomed the publication of the Healthcare Commission's annual health check of NHS Trust performance for 2006/07 – and promised to do better.

Chief executive Carole Taylor-Brown said: "As a publicly funded service it is important that local people know how well we are doing to meet their health needs.

"The assessment looks at what is important to patients: healthcare which is timely and

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

safe. Publication of the assessment helps us to be more accountable to the people we serve."

The commission assessed the quality of PCT services in 2006/07 as "fair" but assessed use of resources as "weak", mainly due to its historic debt.

Some of the achievements in services in 2006/07 were: early detection of retinopathy for diabetes patients; 26-week wait for inpatients; maximum waits of 13 weeks for an outpatient appointment; two months for urgent referrals to treatment for cancers; one month from diagnosis to treatment for cancer and four-hour maximum wait in A&E from arrival to admission, transfer or discharge.

Mrs Taylor-Brown said: "Our goal is to become one of the best performing PCTs in the country.

"We recognise that there are areas for improvement in our services and we are already focused on making the right changes to commission and provide excellent services to patients.

"We have turned around the financial position to reduce the accumulated historic debt from £35.5 million at the start of the year to £30.9 million.

"We are currently on target to reduce the debt by a further £18.9 million during this financial year."

No plea in murder bid case

A MAN accused of the attempted murder of his mother has appeared at Ipswich Crown Court.

Edward Oxford, of Risbridge Drive, Kedington, is charged with attempting to murder Christine Oxford at Kedington on or between October 8 and 9. He is also accused of possessing an offensive weapon, namely a sheath knife.

Oxford, 41, who had not yet entered a plea to either offence, did not apply for bail and remanded in custody until his next court appearance on December 14.

Ceremony confirms new bishop

■ TENTH BISHOP . . . the Rt Rev Nigel Stock. cc

A NEW bishop has taken office in Suffolk at a ceremony dating from the reign of Henry VIII.

The Rt Rev Nigel Stock legally became Suffolk's Diocesan Bishop on Monday when the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr Rowan Williams, and officials from Suffolk's diocese and cathedral gathered at the church of St-Mary-le-Bow, London, for a legal ceremony and service.

It confirms Mr Stock's election as the 10th Bishop of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

As Suffolk's senior bishop, he is charged to have "special responsibility to further the unity of the church" and "to know his people and be known by them."

Before the bishop takes up his public duties as Suffolk's Bishop he will have an audience with HM The Queen to take "the Oath of Homage" and then will take his seat in St Edmundsbury Cathedral at his Enthronement on November 20.

Free taster for local firms

A TASTE of sushi is set to tempt business men and women to learn more about the benefits of joining their local chamber of commerce.

Haverhill Chamber of Commerce will hold the free event on Wednesday at sushi wholesalers, The Cambridge Sushi Company on Hollands Road in Haverhill.

A team from Suffolk Chamber of Commerce will give an overview of the benefits that membership of the local chamber can bring, including healthcare, and how companies can adopt a greener more energy efficient approach to their utilities consumption.

There will also be a presentation on the latest chamber initiative - Young Chamber. The scheme is being piloted at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College next month as part of Enterprise Week.

The scheme is aimed at providing a forum for 14-19 year olds in their local business community.

Paul Donno, chairman of Haverhill Chamber, said, "Our young people have so much to contribute to the business world and need to understand more about business.

"This is a great initiative and we are very proud that Haverhill has been chosen to launch the project before it is rolled out across the county."

The event will conclude with a talk on sushi, a demonstration of how to prepare it and the opportunity to try a selection of dishes.

The event starts at 6pm. To find out more about chamber membership or to book a place at the meeting, contact Elaine Carr at elaine@flipflopmarketing.co.uk, or ring (01440) 710 158.

Drugs and a knife on prison visitors

A PERSON carrying a knife, another with cannabis and two disqualified drivers were discovered in a single day of checks on visitors to Stradishall's Highpoint Prison.

Suffolk Police and the prison Service joined forces for the operation, which followed on from intelligence received through the Suffolk prison.

Police and prison officers with dogs checked all vehicles entering Highpoint on October 5, and an Automatic Number-plate Recognition System was used to identify vehicles which may be connected with crime.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

St Edmundsbury rural Inspector Ady Caton said similar checks would be made in future, with police and prison officers "taking positive action" against those breaking the law.

He said: "This was a very productive afternoon, with 28 vehicles containing visitors coming through the checkpoint.

"Two disqualified drivers were stopped, a street warning was issued for possession of cannabis and one person was reported for carrying a knife.

"Four vehicles were also seized, those of the two disqualified drivers, and two which were uninsured. Various other vehicle offences will also be dealt with."

Ruth Stephens, the deputy governor at Highpoint said: "I welcome this initiative where the prison service works closely with colleagues in the police.

"This has enabled us to continue our work to protect the public and make sure our security remains robust and efficient, whilst providing ongoing support for prisoners seeking to address their drug problems.

"I am pleased with the message this operation sent to prisoners and their visitors, that contraband in prisons will not be tolerated."

Girls enjoy soccer tournament fun

GIRLS from Coupals Primary School, Haverhill, made quite a mark at a football tournament for local schools held in the town. Samuel Ward Arts and Technology

College hosted the event to encourage girls to get active and enjoy playing football. A number of Haverhill schools as well as village schools such as Thurlow and Hundon took part. The Coupals team won a target scoring contest and each member received a back pack, a cap, a medal and a drinks bottle.

Hard-hitting safety message

FIREFIGHTERS will be showing young drivers a graphic presentation to help them stay safe behind the wheel.

A 45-minute presentation called Learn and Live will be shown to youngsters aged between 16 and 24 years at the Bell Hotel in Clare by crew members from Clare Fire Station. Adults are also welcome to attend.

Carl Benson, officer in charge at Clare Fire Station, said: "We make no apologies about the fact that this will be an extremely hard-hitting experience but for that reason we insist that nobody under 16 is allowed to attend."

For more information about the event, at 7.30pm on November 21, contact Officer Benson on (07918) 679291.

Children upset by maggots

Sir, With reference to the recent reports on school lunch "curried rice and maggots" at Chalkstone Middle School, it gives a totally new look on the old saying "meat and two veg" (Maggots in school meals spark anger – Weekly News, October 18).

I don't think it's what Jamie Oliver had in mind for a healthy balanced diet, although it sounds like it was full of protein! I expect the local chip shop is doing a roaring trade at lunch time and sweet sales are probably up!

It appears there has been a total lack of health and hygiene procedure. The thought of eating parasites for lunch must have upset a lot of children – if not physically it would have been mentally. I certainly know that my 12-year-old child Benjamin, who was served with the "surprise lunch", was upset – and to be offered only the refund of the meal was disgusting!

I tried on several occasions to speak to the school headmaster Nigel Giles but was told – as was the local media – "no comment".

As Mr Giles is the head of the school and parents put their children in his care he should be made to answer for the disgusting lack of health and hygiene. Perhaps a new headteacher would be in order if he is not prepared to make a statement.

It would be interesting to hear other parents' views on this matter.

Spend cash more wisely

Sir, I was outraged to see your front page article about Coun Phil French giving £4,000 from his locality budget to Cartwheels on Greenfield's Way for toys and play equipment (Councillor budgets for tots' fun – Weekly News, October 18).

Don't you think the money would have been better spent on keeping Cartwheels open on Camps Road? To think the council have put up their rates and have forced them to close.

At least this money would have given time for the staff to come up with perhaps a price increase or some sort of fundraising scheme to fund the rate increase. As a parent whose daughter attended Cartwheels for 18 months full time I am gutted. She has had to move to another nursery.

I just think it is sad that good nurseries and shops are having to be closed because of rate rises.

SAM'S THE WORD

News from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College

AS WE enter half term, many students are doing coursework and homework, however there have been some events going on.

■ Year 10 students had their first RE Day which was all about family life. This involved learning about family values and the importance of family in other religions. We hope the students learned a lot and enjoyed the day.

■ A few students from Year 13 are involved in filming and creating a media production for the local area. This will be used to give information about events in and around Haverhill. We hope the students are successful in their project.

■ Some students are preparing to go to Germany as part of the German exchange. Students will travel to Ehringshausen in Germany where they will stay with a family for several days and take part in various activities and excursions. We hope they all enjoy the trip and have a memorable experience.

■ Sixth Form students have the chance to look round the University of East Anglia in Norwich on Tuesday. The students will learn how to apply to university and find out what life at university is like. We hope they enjoy the experience and learn from the visit.

Emma Pearson

MANORISMS

News from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College

THE last week of the half term was marked by various events happening in and outside of the school.

The first Advanced Learning Day of the year took place on Thursday with the theme of Global Issues. Advanced learning days are off-timetable days where tutor groups, consisting of all-year groups, come together to study a topic to do with citizenship. Students learned about economy and the roles of independent and larger businesses shown in model towns which the pupils built. The groups also investigated where our clothes come from and how young clothing workers in Third World countries are treated. The students produced their own drama to illustrate how much we pay for our clothes but how little foreign workers get paid to make them.

■ Many advanced learning days take place during the school year, teaching the students important citizenship skills needed for life. This is why, starting this year, Year 11 pupils will take a GCSE exam on the issues they learn throughout Years 9, 10 and 11. On Friday, 28 Year 11 students spent the day learning about the new course, and how to prepare for the exam. They started the day with an introduction talk, and were then set coursework.

■ Castle Manor's media team has joined with Samuel Wards' to produce a DVD for the School Organisation Review by Suffolk County Council. The DVD will be used for the council's meetings with the parents of pupils around Suffolk. The DVD will give parents a varied view on the current three-tier system of secondary schools and the proposed two-tier system. The media teams travelled around Haverhill and the surrounding area interviewing primary, middle and upper school students on learning. They then travelled to Ipswich to obtain a statement from Suffolk County Council. Everyone involved gained a wide perspective on the organisation of Suffolk schools and hope the DVD will inspire MPs, teachers, parents, and most importantly students, to give their opinion on how their schools should be run.

Garages grabbed back

DOZENS of unused garages have been reclaimed to help ease parking problems and reduce crime on a Haverhill estate.

Police, Neighbourhood Watch, district and borough councils and other groups tackled the clean-up last Monday and Tuesday during national Not In My Neighbourhood Week to coincide with the 25th year of Neighbourhood Watch.

Haverhill Safer Neighbourhood Teams (SNTs) and landlord Havebury Housing aim to alleviate parking problems on the Chalkstone estate by freeing up dozens of unused garages for new tenants.

By Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Sgt Sarah Bartley said: "We obtained details of all vacant garages – opened them up, searched them and if necessary cleared them out, then Havebury can let them out to new tenants."

"The benefit of renting out a garage is enormous – tenants will have somewhere secure to store their belongings and cars to prevent them from becoming a victim of crime. We also have had a huge parking problem on this estate, and once the garages have been cleared, we will enforce the parking regulations. There will no longer be the excuse that there aren't any garages to use. We have already carried out this exercise on the Clements estate, and parking problems have improved."

Residents do not have to be Havebury tenants to apply for garages. Contact Havebury on 08456 123851 for details.

Community Safety Inspector Ben Cook said the week was about "residents joining forces with agencies to say no to anti-social behaviour, alcohol and drug misuse and any other issues affecting feelings of safety in the community".

Pub pair to bring back sparkle

A RIDGEWELL pub is planning a charity fireworks event on the eve of Guy Fawke's Night.

Andy and Liz Higgins took over the Kings Head pub at Ridgewell 18 months ago and are keen to get more involved with the local community.

As there was no firework display planned for the village the couple decided to organise one in aid of the Essex Air Ambulance Appeal and also for Ridgewell Primary School.

The event will be held on Sunday, November 4, with the bonfire lit at 6.30pm and the firework display between 7pm and 7.30pm at the rear of the pub.

Entry is free, but donations are sought for the charity and the school.

During the day there will also be a display of US Airforce Vintage vehicles and other fun events at the pub.

Mum's anger over late taxi

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

AN ANGRY mother of four is boycotting a taxi firm after her eight-year-old son was left waiting to be collected from school for the third time.

Bernice Jaggard was even more unhappy with what happened last Monday afternoon because another child was also due to be collected in a pre-booked taxi from Place Farm Primary School in Camps Road, Haverhill.

Mrs Jaggard's son Jack and his classmate Charlotte King, finished school at 3.15pm, but did not finally arrive home at Aragon Road until 4.10pm.

They only arrived after Mrs Jaggard had made several frantic phone calls to the office of ABC Taxis. Mrs Jaggard was at home caring for nine-month-old Harley and Harrison, who is almost two, and waiting for her 10-year-old daughter Destiny to return from her school.

She said: "Three times they have left my son at school on a pre-booked taxi and completely forgotten about him.

"The taxi driver said they had four drivers off sick when he did come, but it is just not good enough. They should give priority to children and old people. They did not charge me for the taxi, but that is not the point. I think it is disgusting and I won't be using them again.

"It makes me look like a bad parent, especially when I am responsible for someone else's child. The children are not allowed out of the school until the taxi driver goes in and gives their name, so the teachers have to wait with them.

"I live a mile away from the school and it is quite a trek with the younger children, plus I need to be at home when my daughter gets here."

Stephen Hearn, proprietor of ABC, said: "A few drivers let us down that afternoon and did not come in when they should have done. We did pick them up and we did not charge them. It is just one of those things that happen, we are not late day after day. We normally do phone people and tell them if we have their number."

Bus stop hit

A BUS shelter was damaged and a wall was knocked into a garden at Hundon.

Police are linking the two incidents, the first of which was at Lower North Street on Monday October 8, when the wall was pushed over.

Then at Farmerie Road, Hundon, between October 12 and 14, the roof of a bus shelter was damaged and the timetable cover smashed.

Anyone with information about these incidents should call Sgt Neil Ireland at the St Edmundsbury Rural South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774100 or call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Charity bingo

CHARITY bingo games will be played at the in-store restaurant at the Haycocks Road branch of Sainsbury's in Haverhill.

The regular sessions, organised by the Hanchett Village Residents' Association, are in aid of the East Anglian Air Ambulance appeal and everyone is welcome to attend.

The next event will be held on Monday at 8pm.

■ HOT STUFF . . . Sainsbury's staff present pupils with the cookery kit.

Picture: David Johnson 439476.

Gift to get classes cooking

PRIMARY school pupils will be cooking up a storm after getting a free kitchen kit.

The kit, which contained 100 pieces of cooking equipment, was presented to Haverhill's Place Farm Primary School by staff at the town's Sainsbury's store.

A kit will also be given to Parkway Middle School.

This giveaway marks the supermarket's sixth Make a Difference Day and the launch of its Active Kids Get Cooking challenge.

Both aim to broaden education by getting kids cooking.

Research by Sainsbury's found more than nine in 10 teachers feared the next generation would be incapable of serving a home-cooked meal.

Child poverty gap continues

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

NEW figures show children from deprived areas in Suffolk are not progressing as well as those in other areas.

Haverhill MP Richard Spring said the figures indicated that the Government would miss its target on reducing the achievement gap between children from deprived areas and those living in other parts of Suffolk.

Only 33 per cent of five-year-olds living in deprived areas of Suffolk are reaching state targets for learning and development compared to 48 per cent of those in other areas. Overall, just 46 per cent of five-year-olds in Suffolk are achieving the set goals.

The Government statistics, drawn from assessments made by reception teachers in a child's first year of formal education, looked at progress in areas such as: personal, social and emotional development; communication, language and literacy; mathematical development; physical development; creative development and knowledge and understanding of the world.

Mr Spring said: "Despite £21bn being spent on Sure Start – the Government's flagship scheme to help children from our most deprived communities – this data clearly shows that children from poorer areas still face a significant disadvantage."

"It is unacceptable that children from our most deprived areas are still not getting the opportunity for a decent start in life."

■ RELAXING . . . Zeiss Clothing owner, Paul Farrant, has a smile to go with his relaxed shopping ethos.

Zeiss offers fun with formalwear

ADVERTISING FEATURE

WITH the age of the prom upon us boys as young as 13 years old are hiring suits. But rather than dealing with old-fashioned men's tailors, they can head to modern fashion shops to get their tuxedos.

According to Paul Farrant, owner of Zeiss Clothing, who runs a formalwear hire service, a man's reasons for hiring a suit can be extremely varied.

"There's tux hire for school balls - that's getting more and more popular with boys as young as 13 coming in. Then there're murder mystery weekends and James Bond balls. And of course, the most special event of all - weddings!"

■ TOP SERVICE . . . Aileen Farrant helps provide a complete hire package.

But forget buying your suit from an intimidating, traditional men's tailor. At Zeiss Clothing the staff are on hand to make the experience as enjoyable as possible.

"We do the package - trousers, jackets, shirts waistcoat and cravats and have everything from tailcoats to Edwardian jackets. I'm not a straight faced person so customers can expect to have a laugh when they come in. We'll often get the groom and the best man in together and we'll make it a fun fitting rather than the somber, old-fashioned approach. It's good for it to be bit light hearted, it calms any nerves and reminds everyone it's going to be a fun day. The Edwardian look is more popular now because it offers a smarter look. Edwardian jackets are three quarter length straight cut jackets which are a modern alternative to the traditional tailcoat. Some people even go for brown, moving away from the traditional black."

Zeiss Clothing also stocks a range of high fashion women's and men's clothes. "For the men we offer labels like Ben Sherman and Lambretta but in the last six months we've moved away from labels for women. The trend now is for fast, affordable fashion. It's more important for women to be able to have something new every weekend. We used to buy in season, now we're getting new stock in every two weeks. We've also started doing jewellery and funky handbags."

Zeiss Clothing is open 9.30-5.30pm from Monday to Saturday.

Stirling efforts help band take silver spot

By Jo Deeks

A BRASS band has had a sterling month – recording its latest CD and adding to a growing tally of prizes at a competition in Kent.

Haverhill Silver Band recorded its latest CD in the Old Independent Church, Haverhill. The session featured a mixed programme and the end result will be on sale in time for Christmas. Entitled Bandstand, the album's cover features a local landmark – the Millennium bandstand on Haverhill Recreation Ground.

On Sunday, October 14, the Silver Band travelled to Folkestone, Kent, to take part in the Southern Counties Open.

It achieved second place overall after competing in the top division and playing the classic Diversions on a Bass Theme by orchestral composer George Lloyd. Overall winner was one of Belgium's best bands, from the city of Kortrijk.

Haverhill's Mark Ager won the best conductor prize for his interpretation of what the adjudicators described as a very difficult piece. The basses also won the Best Bass Section trophy.

The Silver Band is performing at the Haverhill Arts Centre on Sunday, November 11, at 7.30pm. The group will play a programme of favourites picked by the Friends of Haverhill Silver Band, featuring a wide range of music from Finlandia by Sibelius to One Moment in Time made famous by Whitney Houston.

Tickets are available from the box office on (01440) 714 140 at £6.50 or £5 for concessions.

Twenties comes roaring back with Buggy Malone

ANYONE who thinks amateur dramatics is in decline could pay a visit to Haverhill Arts Centre and discover otherwise.

One of Centre Stage Company's strengths has always been its quality of young talent, but its latest production, Buggy Malone, showed the quantity of its talent too.

Close to 60 young performers took part in one of the classic children's shows, which cleverly has its teeny gangsters wiping each other out with nothing more lethal than splurge guns and pies in the face. I had my doubts about the show, after finding the film version too cloyingly cute. But the Centre Stage kids produced a natural charm and exuberance to melt the coldest heart. The cast ranged from the youngest at eight years to an upper limit of just 16, but all demonstrated a level of stage presence far beyond their years. John Chandler had the hard task of trying to immediately grab the attention of the audience in the title role of Buggy – but got them on side straight away. American accents are particularly hard to crack, but both he and the rest of the cast sounded like they were born in the Bronx. Tom Bailey, meanwhile, belied his small frame to make an excellent Fat Sam, ranting convincingly at all around him. Lauren Chinery was in fine voice as the female lead Blousey Brown and she provided a fiery foil to Buggy. Her younger brother Adam also put a strong individual stamp on the role of Fizzy, with his totally unaffected but heart-warming performance.

Lee Mayes, meanwhile, is one of only two members of the cast to take part in the company's earlier performance of the show, seven years ago, and showed how he has matured into a valuable and versatile mainstay.

But in the stunning finale to the show the tiny hoodlums with their too-big suits, as well as small speakeasy dancers in sparkly dresses, really came into their own.

To pull off the show with so much style at such tender years bodes very well for the future.

THE first of four new Fiat 500 cars illustrated by renowned English artist, Tracey Emin, has been sold at auction for £42,000.

The work, entitled 'I Told You Not To', is one of four specially designed and painted examples of the supermini, which have taken the art world by storm. Described as taking Emin's work "quite literally out of the gallery and on to the street", the cars have created the first moving exhibition of its kind.

The 500 went under the hammer for $85,000 last Saturday during the Contemporary Art Auction at the Phillips de Pury & Company saleroom in London.

Proceeds from the sale will go to the artist's chosen charity PEAS, which is raising funds for a school library in Uganda. Additional funds will also help establish future Fiat art projects in London.

The three other 500s with Emin designs will also be offered at auction, one before the end of the year and two in 2008.

"I really enjoyed working on the Fiat 500, which I refer to as the 'mouse car'," said Tracey Emin.

The Fiat 500 range goes on sale throughout the UK with a choice of petrol and diesel engines and three trim levels, in January 2008.

MOTORING

■ SPORTY ... the VW sports 4x4 engine produces a tarmac-warping 627lb ft of torque.

Touareg is unveiled

VOLKSWAGEN has unveiled the Touareg R50 at the recent Australian Motor Show in Sydney. Its 347bhp positions it among the most powerful SUVs in the world. The Touareg R50 can be ordered in Germany at prices starting around £61,500; it will be on the market this November. The engine characteristic of the Touareg R50 is marked by a torque level nearly unattainable by the competition. The V10 TDI of the Touareg R50 develops its enormous pulling power of 627lb ft at 2,000rpm. The turbo diesel was derived from the well-known ten cylinder with 227bhp. Adjustments to its turbo charging and modified engine management enabled a 36bhp increase in power and a considerable 73lb ft increase in torque. These new figures mean a 0-62mph time of 6.7 seconds and 146mph top speed. With a sporty, air-suspended chassis, the Touareg R50 is one seriously quick 4x4.

FOOTBALL

Angels fall to late sucker punch

A TIGHTLY-FOUGHT game at Puddlebrook between two Haverhill sides went the way of the Lions with a late goal that was enough to finally see off the challenge of the Angels.

Herbert went 1-0 up towards the end of the first half with a headed goal from a corner.

Angels fought back and equalised when substitute Lewis Townsend broke free of the home defence to put the ball away.

A questionable throw-in decision two minutes from time, when it had appeared that Angels' captain Dan Strasters had been pushed, led to the visitors' final demise.

Lions were able to score their second and winning goal from the resultant restart, despite Angels' goalkeeper Matthew Morrison getting a hand to the ball.

Herbert Lions 2 Delaware Feather Angels 1

TREADFIRST SUDBURY SUNDAY LEAGUE, DIVISION FIVE

Man-of-the-match for Angels was Brian Martin.

■ Elsewhere in the Treadfirst Sudbury and District Sunday League, Haverhill Royal Exchange recorded their first league of the season as they beat Division One strugglers Cole Green 5-3. A Burgess hat-trick and goals by Macalpine and Downes saw the Exchange get a much-needed three points.

Bayhorse closed the gap on league leaders Haverhill Bull with a win against unbeaten Woolpack 4-1.

Bayhorse are now a point behind Bull, who have a game in hand.

Haverhill United Old Boys won their first game of the season 4-2 against Border Athletic.

Haverhill Snooker and Bowl dropped to fifth place after a 4-2 defeat at Lavenham.

In Division Two, Thurlow recorded their first win of the season with a 5-1 victory against bottom of the league Cornard Crusaders.

In Division Three, Grampian Sunday comprehensively beat Mount Pleasant Reserves 4-1 with two goals for Danny Hill and one a piece from both Ryan Brown and James Pagram.

Stoke By Clare plummeted to their third straight defeat as they lost 4-2 at Barnadiston Arms who stay in second place.

Kedington White Horse stay rooted to the bottom as they lost 4-2 at Cornard Athletic.

YOUTH MATCHES

Bates secures derby victory for Thurlow

West Wrattling U11 1 Thurlow U11 2

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

THIS local derby was always going to be a tight affair and proved to be a great advert for the U11s Cambs League.

Thurlow began to dictate the pace early with Goodings, Bates and Culley matching Ager, Bush and Stevenson in midfield, where majority of the play resided.

Williamson's precise finish from Culley's through ball put Thurlow in front 1-0, but, soon after, Bush rattled in his seventh of the season to bring Wrattling level.

The home side pressed with Lambert and Elliot going close before Wilson's shot was well saved by Millar.

Thurlow pushed on and, after good work from Goodings, Williamson's shot was saved by Millar, but Bates followed in to plant home what turned out to be the winning goal.

The second half was again tight with both sides creating chances.

Lambert, Stevenson and Scotton all went close for the home side with Smith in the visitors' goal in outstanding form and Bailey going close for Thurlow.

West Wrattling: Millar, Bush, Cooper, Elliott, Foster, Massie, Stevenson, Ager, Payne, Scotton, Ankers, Lambert.

Thurlow: Smith, Culley, Bluett, Goodings, Williamson, Marsh, Wilson, Ripp, Bates, Bailey, Brown.

St Ives U14 A 0 Grampian Gunners U14 1

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

GRAMPIAN were in determined mood when they travelled to St Ives.

The only goal of the game came eight minutes before the break when Luke Youngs' corner was headed in by Jacob Brown.

Earlier in the half Ben Baldwin had produced two fine saves to keep out St Ives.

The second half saw St Ives hit the bar as they got closer to the equaliser, while Jordan Jackson always carried a constant threat for the visitors.

West Wrattling U8 5 Cherry Hinton Lions U8 4

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE

CHERRY Hinton went 2-0 up after being gifted two early goals, while Wrattling were unlucky not to reduce the deficit straight away as Grocott's long-range volley hit the crossbar.

Comer pegged one back and then Wrattling were then awarded a penalty, which Eldred netted to level.

Wrattling then found themselves 4-2 up as Eldred got his second and third.

The game was far from over as the visitors pulled one back.

Mutswunguma regained Wrattling's two-goal advantage back, but Lions made it a tense finish with a late goal.

■ West Wrattling U10 Reds travelled to face unbeaten Ely Crusaders in a seven-a-side friendly and ran out 3-2 winners in a compelling and entertaining match.

Scorers for the Reds were Joshua Ruthven, Sean Elsom and Will Bailey.

TABLE TENNIS

Haverhill routed are by rampant Saints

PREVIOUSLY unbeaten Haverhill were firmly put in their place by St George's in Division One of the Cambridge and District League with the champions recording a 9-1 victory. Kevin and Martin Gray both won three singles for the Saints with Haverhill's solitary success coming from Rob Cushen, who beat Steve Trevannion in straight sets. The result was in stark contrast to the 10-0 whitewash Haverhill achieved over Soham II. Promoted Stapleford put up a good performance losing narrowly 6-4 to last season's runners-up St Ives, while a good all round performance saw Impington defeat Soham 1 6-4.

In Division Two, three wins for Caroline Wright helped Haverhill II to a 5-5 draw with Impington and Rob Pownall's maximum enabled St George's III to defeat Cambridge II 6-4.

In the inter-club battle between St George's second and third strings, honours were even with all players contributing points in the 5-5 draw.

New club St Neots look like dominating the third division with their latest victims

Fulbourn only managing to win one singles courtesy of Jim Reary over Peter O'Gorman in the 9-1 rout. Over III had two good wins by 7-3 over their own second team and a 10-0 whitewash of CIBA. Jon Audus and Ian Boggie both recorded maximums as Soham III easily accounted for Haverhill III 9-1.

Junior Nick Bradley recorded three wins for Over IV in their 6-4 success against St George's V in Division, while Fred Laband had similar success for Cambridge IV in their 6-4 victory at St Ives V. Sawston had an easy 9-1 victory over St Ives VI with Nick Bennett the only winner for the losers.

RESULTS: Division One - St George's 9 Haverhill 1, RCG Stapleford 4 St Ives 1 6, Cambridge 1 9 Over 1, Soham 1 4 Impington 6, Haverhill 10 Soham II 0, NCI 7 University 3, Over 6 NCI 4.

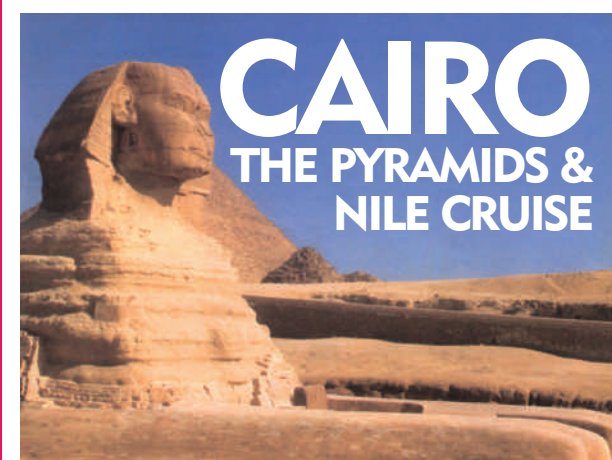

Division Two - Impington II 5 Haverhill II 5, St George's III 6 Cambridge II 4, St George's III 5 St George's II 5.

Division Three - CIBA 8 St George's IV 2, Haverhill III 1 Soham III 9, Fulbourn 1 St Neots 9, Over II 3 Over III 7, Over III 10 CIBA 0.

Division Four - St George's V 4 Over IV 6, St Ives VI 2 St George's V 8, St George's V 2 NCI V 8, St Ives V 4 Cambridge IV 6, Sawston 9 St Ives VI 1.

WOMEN'S FOOTBALL

Own goal sees Rovers make progress in cup

HAVERHILL travelled to Norwich with a depleted side, missing both central defenders Zoe Klimke and Yasmin Ickin, and Katie Shorter from central midfield. Rovers started very brightly and were unlucky not to open the scoring in the second minute when Claire Radford was put through, but was unable to finish the chance.

Swanton 1 Haverhill Rovers 2 (after extra time)

NORFOLK & SUFFOLK CUP, FIRST ROUND

Haverhill continued to take the game to Swanton and some good football saw numerous chances go begging. Swanton opened the scoring against the run of play after a defensive mistake.

The visitors continued to attack and were awarded a free kick just outside the area. Sarah Gee stepped up to drive the ball home to equalise. The second half saw Haverhill continue to dominate. Karen Williams hit the post and Rachael Mann was unlucky on two occasions not to score when her shots hit the side netting. Extra time saw the same situation with Haverhill creating and missing chance after chance. But Rovers grabbed victory when a Swanton defender headed into her own net from a Kelly Taylor cross. Haverhill are now away to Norwich in the second round on November 18.

MARTIAL ARTS

Kevin in league of his own

KEVIN Townsend has become the only active fifth dan in the country in his chosen style after successfully completing his latest AMA grading. The veteran martial artist, from Haverhill, has been teaching in the sport for 23 years and now runs a club in Wimbish once a week, at the Village Hall from 7pm to 9.30pm.

Townsend has entered several full-contact competitions, including cage fighting with great success and his main interest lies in Cempa after studying many forms for combat competition.

The fifth dan took Townsend four years to obtain. He had to go through a four-hour teaching and sparring session before he was awarded the honour by AMA executive Tom Hibbert meaning the Haverhill man is now the highest grade fighter in his discipline.

Townsend has since gone on to teach his own style called Karate Street Fighting, which is a mix between Cempa, submission fighting and boxing all rolled into one, where anything goes, which is what he teaches in Wimbish. If you are interested in going along to the club contact Kevin Townsend on 07790 806646.

RUGBY

Haverhill waste a fine start

HAVERHILL threw away a first-half lead to lose 25-10 to Dereham in Division Two of the Eastern Counties League on Saturday.

Mark Jury, pictured above, converted his own try to give Haverhill, who were missing several players, a 7-0 lead at the break.

Dereham hit back with two tries in the second half before Jury kicked a penalty to make it 10-10, but the hosts went on to score three more touchdowns.

Skipper Dave Quinney said: "The performance was really good in the first half.

"But in the second half we just went to sleep and let them play."

Rovers march on after cup victory

HAVERHILL Rovers were gifted both their goals as they knocked near-neighbours Saffron Walden out of the Ridgeons League Cup at Hamlet Croft on Tuesday.

Rovers took the lead after 25 minutes of the preliminary round tie when Nick Impey just beat Bloods keeper Ed Lewis to the ball, which trickled across the line.

Twelve minutes later, Lewis punched a Marc Abbott header high into the air and Joe Harvey nodded the ball into the net via the underside of the bar to double the hosts' advantage.

■ Martin Westcott's ninth-minute header proved crucial as Haverhill stretched their unbeaten run to four league games at Norwich United on Saturday.

Steve Taylor's men began positively and went in front when Wayne Goddard's corner was headed on to the underside of the bar by Colin Vowden, and Westcott showed a predatory instinct to bury the rebound.

Abbott blazed over and Impey latched on to Vowden's flick-on before seeing his first shot blocked and his second effort cleared off the line.

And Louie Farrington was a whisker away from doubling the lead in the final 10 minutes when he just failed to make contact with Cody Frazier's dangerous cross.

■ Rovers have a double helping of home league action coming up. They face Lowestoft on Saturday, followed by a visit from Mildenhall on Tuesday evening.
